Keep little hands and minds busy this summer at our special creative arts week designed to encourage exploration, ignite imagination and inspire creativity!

Creative Explorers is an exciting arts week for children of all abilities aged 5-7. From music to drama, storytelling to set design, young participants will be able to enjoy all kinds of fun and inspiring activities specially tailored to encourage exploration and creativity in a nurturing, welcoming environment.

Creative Explorers participants will benefit from:

- Variety of activities across a multitude of art forms everyday
- Workshops and activities led by professional musicians and artists
- The chance to explore new things in a supportive and inclusive environment
- Pastoral care from our experienced and friendly team
- The opportunity to make new friends outside of school

Booking information:

We offer the flexibility for children to attend all 5 days of activities or a selection of days. To book, please visit: <https://www.operanorth.co.uk/opera-north-creative-explorers> Alternatively, you can call the Opera North Box Office on 0844 848 2720.
