Year 3

LUCY THORNTON & ALFIE BROWN

We cannot praise Lucy enough for her wonderful attitude towards school life. She has a real desire to complete her work to the highest standard, is always looking to develop and improve and her behaviour and focus in class is unbelievable. On top of that Lucy has a lovely, kind personality which allows her to be a successful and respected team player and a pleasure for us to teach!

Alfie has really demonstrated this week the great progress he has made since joining us in September. His written work has improved hugely in terms of both the presentation and content as Alfie now has a good understanding of how to make his writing descriptive and interesting for the audience. Also, at swimming he displayed great courage, facing his fears and proving to himself that he can achieve anything if he believes in himself. Well done.

Year 4

Daniel Cowling

You are such a delightful member of the class – always polite and well mannered. You are a true gem. This week, you have particularly impressed us in Literacy with your descriptive writing. Not only had you included lots of 'wow' words but you also presented your work very neatly too. This is what we are aiming for every time - just fabulous!

Noah Davis

Your creativity and positivity is infectious! You are always a joy to be around and have a great attitude towards school and all you do here. You have also impressed us this week with your descriptive writing – adverbs, adjectives and similes ☺ Noah, you always contribute to class discussions and we know you listen carefully because your hand is up to answer questions too. You are a super star!

Year 5

Niamh Wright, Billy Little, Seth Mills, Jake Petty

Niamh: What a great start to the new year! You've come back to school with determination, enthusiasm, extra effort, more confidence and smiling! You've worked particularly well this week in maths, showing that you are making a definite effort to learn your tables and this is making such a difference! We're now beginning to see a more independent you – great stuff Niamh – keep it up!

Billy: You are such a thoughtful and caring boy Billy, and we truly value having you in the class. In so many ways, you show us just how much you care for people, both in our class and in the wider community; you have firm opinions and ideas which reflect this. You have settled back into school really well this week. You have really challenged yourself in maths – fantastic work in calculation and fractions – and you've put so much effort into your Haiku writing. Very well done, Billy!

Seth: Seth the thinker! We love the way you always ponder, carefully collecting your thoughts before you speak, because, when you do give an answer or an opinion, it is always interesting, genuine, intelligent and worth listening to. You are very knowledgeable in history and this week it is clear you are a Space expert too! Great enthusiasm for learning, Seth!

Jake: This week you have made it very clear that you are aiming high! Fantastic maths, super Haiku writing, extra enthusiasm for reading and a genuine determination to do your best – just right Jake! And we love your amazing singing and dancing in our Young Voices rehearsals – your enthusiasm and enjoyment inspire us all. A great start to the new year!

Year 6

Leon Griffiths, Spencer Roberts and Elle-Rose Waters

Leon – this week, you have shown us what you are truly capable of. You have listened well, been keen to answer questions and produced some super work. Your New Year's Resolution is already paying off!! In Maths, you have worked hard finding the area and perimeter of different shapes with great success. In Science, you have shown a good understanding of our 'Light' topic, explaining clearly how light travels and how shadows are formed. Well done, Leon. Keep it up, Leon.

Spencer – you have shown such an eagerness to participate in class discussions this week, impressing us with your contributions. It has been great to see your enthusiasm for learning and the superb work it has resulted in. You have worked hard in Maths, using the correct formulae to calculate the area of triangles and parallelograms. Stay just as you are, Spencer. ☺

Elle-Rose – we can always rely on you to give 100% to all tasks. We can see you have started the year as you mean to go on, by working hard and striving to be your best. The work you have produced in Science clearly demonstrates your deep understanding. You are also taking greater care with your presentation, which is contributing to your work even further. Fantastic, Elle-Rose - what a super asset you are to Year 6. ☺
