

The Golden Book

Date: 22nd September 2017

Year 1

Amelia England

Amelia has had a fantastic start to year 1. She always works hard and tries her best, even when it gets a bit tricky. This week she wrote a super sentence about Autumn. Well done Amelia, keep aiming high!

Hattie Wells-Thompson

Hattie is such a delight to have in year one. She is always smiling and trying her best. This week she has also shown what a good friend she is, and a fantastic role model to others. Keep it up Hattie, you are a star.

Year 2

Freddie Lee

Freddie has made a super start to his year in Year 2! He always tried his best, and is always doing the right thing. He has some super ideas, and is really good at explaining his thinking. Keep looking up and aiming high, Freddie!

Gabriella Verney

Gabriella is a lovely member of our class. She is happy and smiley, and obviously tries to be a good friend to everyone. She puts all her effort into anything she tries - even if it is a bit tricky! I am so pleased to see her challenging herself already. Well done, Gabriella, we are pleased to have you!

Year 3

Zach Williamson

You have absolutely shone in your maths work this week Zach! You showed great perseverance when working on the probing questions to explain your answer carefully. Your answer was so thorough and provided a fantastic model to show the class. We have been so impressed with the mathematical understanding you have shown. What a super star - keep up this excellent focus on your learning Zach!

Zara Gardner

You have shown such dedication to your learning this week Zara and have been committed to giving your very best! You have worked with great attention to detail to redraft your descriptive writing and we have loved your response to feedback. You have also continued to challenge yourself in science and your information poster includes excellent persuasive facts about the pro's of your chosen skeleton type. This is fantastic Zara - keep going!

Year 4

Charlie Dawson

Charlie - you are an absolute superstar in every way! You are extremely hard working; always on task and focused. You put 100% effort into everything you do and can be relied upon to make the right choice at all times. You should feel so proud - you definitely show, each day, that you live by our school motto: "Look Up, Aim High"

Annie Crick

Annie - your standards are exemplary! You take such pride in your work and all that you do. Your mummification wheel was outstanding. Each piece of work you do is completed with the very best effort. Not only this, you are so kind, considerate and well mannered. You have shown that you really are the best that you can be each day - amazing.

Year 5

Freya Gatenby

Freya - quite simply, you are a wonderful role model for our class. Focus, dedication and effort are just a few of many qualities you have when it comes to doing your work. Also, congratulations for being the first child in the class to get your pen licence!

Matthew Saunders

Matthew - you have shown great focus and dedication to your work in class and I can see how keen you are to make progress in your learning. You also are really willing to take on board comments as a means to improving your work. Well done Matthew - keep up this dedication to your learning!

Alfie Brown

Alfie - you are super-duper brilliant at being ready and organised in class! You're always one step ahead with instructions and always ready to learn. Sometimes, you're so ahead that you end up doing my next instruction without me saying! Thank you Alfie!

Year 6

Maddie Thurrell, Harry Woodward and Arthur Lazenby

Maddie - you always give your very best to every lesson. We can rely on you to be on task and ready to learn. This week, you have excelled in maths, showing your super place value and rounding skills. Keep up this amazing attitude to learning - it's fab!

Harry and Arthur - you have shown great organisational skills this week in your history work. Your victorian timelines are super. You have organised the events accurately, giving detailed descriptions of the impact of these events. What a great start - keep it up!
