

The Golden Book

Date: 12th January 2018

Reception

Eira Booth

Ms Plunkett says 'Eira brought lots of things from home for our 'World Wednesday' in Happy Week. She was able to talk about the things she had brought and spoke clearly and confidently to the class'. Niall says ' I liked the clogs from Holland'. Lucy says ' I liked the bindis from India'. Max thinks it is really good when people bring things from home for theme days.

Henry Greveson

Mrs Woodfine says ' Henry brought a book called Hello World which told us how to say hello in different languages'. Tyler says ' I liked the book because it also told you how to say goodbye as well'. William Lyth says ' It was really interesting and helped Mrs Elcock with how to say things'.

Year 1

Jacob Brewster

Jacob is such a superstar. He is always smiling and trying his best in every lesson. This week he has been a magical mathematician, finding halves and quarters of shapes and numbers. We were really impressed with Jacob's determination. He never gave up even when the numbers got bigger and bigger. Fantastic effort Jacob, keep aiming high!

Oliver Pilkington

Oliver has had a fantastic start to the new term. Mrs Chorlton and Mrs Walsh have been so impressed with his enthusiasm and positive attitude to learning. This week he has worked particularly hard on his writing ,and especially his writing about The Snail and the Whale. He used exciting words and added lots of information to his sentences. Well done Oliver, keep it up!

Year 2

Leila Salhane-Twort

Leila you have had an amazing start to 2018 and the new term. Your enthusiasm for learning has been incredible. You have worked hard in every single lesson this week - especially in maths. You have tried to answer questions and have shown fantastic reasoning skills. Wow! Keep up the good work!

Isla Johnson

This week you impressed me during PE with the way in which you were a real 'team player' and supported others. You tried really hard to learn new skills, but were always mindful of others. I am so pleased to see your amazing, caring attitude. Well done!

Year 3

Matthew Phillips

Mathew, you are showing such enthusiasm for your learning and excellent listening! You have worked with superb focus in maths this week, including keeping an accurate tally for the whole class during our statistics work. Your approach to our underground adventure art has also been fantastic! You have thought very carefully about both colour choices and techniques. Keep smiling your wonderful smile and aiming high, Matthew!

Sophie Coope

Sophie, you are working with such amazing focus and determination to give your very best! Your contributions to our maths and topic work this week have been incredibly well thought out and you give clear and interesting explanations. You are showing real commitment to your learning. Your careful concentration and eye for detail in our creative art work has also been fabulous! Keep shining Sophie!

Year 4

Harry Wainwright

Wow, Harry! You have come back to school so focused on your learning - we always knew you had it in you and you are proving us right. Perhaps Santa has sprinkled some energy dust onto you?! You are completing all of your work in record time and the content is super too! Keep up the excellent work.

Phoebe O'Brien

You have particularly impressed us with your handwriting, Phoebe. You listened carefully to the suggestions for improvement and have acted on them with great pride. Your work is beautifully presented. This week, your recount of the Christmas holidays was outstanding and is a true reflection of the accomplished writer you are. Simply fabulous!

Joshua Fox

Thank you for being incredibly helpful and considerate this week. You have done everything within your power to make my days a little easier. Our school Christian values have been shown in abundance through your example.

Year 5

Izzy O'Connor

Izzy - I was so, so impressed with your recount writing about your Christmas. You really went into great detail when recounting your Christmas day and included a range of adjectives and complex sentences to enhance the meaning of your writing. This really has been your best piece of writing so a huge well done!

James Faulkes

James - it's wonderful to see how determined and focused you are in class. You are always ready to learn and keen to do your best in all that you do. You're a great role model James so thank you!

Year 6

Joseph Hoyland, Reanna Easter-Brown and Fiona Roach

Joe - you have returned from the holidays determined to be your best. You have worked flat out this week with amazing results. In Maths, you have demonstrated a good understanding of area and perimeter and your report on latitude and longitude is a really mature piece of writing. Well done, Joe - we are so proud of you and know you are going to continue to shine for the rest of the year.

Reanna - you are a delight to have in the class! You always go above and beyond, putting 100% into all your work and supporting your friends when they need it. This week, you have made a strong start on your report on the islamic faith, explaining clearly about different parts of a mosque. Keep it up, Reanna - we love it!

Fiona - WOW!!!! What a week you've had. You too have worked incredibly hard and have reaped the benefits. In Maths, you have shown such confidence, tackling your area and perimeter tasks with gusto and producing a mammoth amount of work in each lesson. We are so proud of your determination to be your best and can see how much you are enjoying your learning. Keep up the good work, Fiona!!

Golden Table

The children named below have been nominated by the Midday Supervisors for their outstanding behaviour at lunchtimes this week. Well done to all of you!
