

The Golden Book

Date: 19th January 2018

Reception

Sam Hale

This week Sam has been seeking challenges. He has enjoyed completing all three challenges carefully and independently. He tried really hard with his writing with Mrs Elcock and worked well on his maths with Mrs Hind too. Ava says 'Sam is in blue group, like me, so its good when my group do well'.

India Lambeth

On Wednesday, the class tried lots of foods from different places in the world. India had a taste of everything even though she wasn't sure if she would like them. Mrs Plunkett said 'India was very brave trying lots of different tastes'. Mrs Hind says 'Well done India for having such a positive attitude!'

Year 1

George Backhouse, Jessica Leary, Martha Cockrem and Riley Lee

Wow! What an amazing week you have all had in maths. This week we have been learning about halves and quarters, and on Monday you all found it a bit tricky and confusing.

BUT you kept trying, asked for help when you needed it, and by Friday you'd cracked it. We are so impressed with your determination and positive attitude, and especially how you helped each other using the equipment. You are all superstars. Keep aiming high!

Year 2

Brooke Mallinson

You are so eager to learn Brooke and you are always smiling. This week we have been drafting non-chronological reports and you had so many ideas. Your attitude to learning has been amazing - even when you found it a bit difficult. What a great example you set for the rest of the class. Well done!

Pippa Raine

Your focus during report writing was fabulous this week, Pippa. It was super to see you taking time to think about what you were going to write and then checking to make sure it made sense. You had some great ideas and even helped other children with word choices. I am so impressed! Keep looking up and aiming high!

Year 3

Ollie Lodge and Bali Wadsworth

Ollie, you have worked with fantastic focus in your independent writing tasks this week. You have been choosing adventurous vocabulary and thinking very carefully about the plot during story writing. You are giving 100% to your learning right across the curriculum too, joining in with class discussion and answering lots of questions. This is superb, Ollie!

Bali, you are always ready to learn! You are a 'super starter' and you are determined to give your best. This week, your imaginative story writing 'Coming Home' is superb - you have given such careful thought to your vocabulary choices. You have also impressed with your excellent questioning skills in our statistics work. In addition, your 'underground' oil pastel art is stunning - we love your creative flair! Just fabulous - keep looking up and aiming high!

Year 4

Abi Rooney

You are always such a hardworking superstar and this week is no different! Thank you for being so consistent with your attitude towards your learning. We were impressed with your character portrait of Spud Murphy this week - lots of detail included in your sentences and it was beautifully presented too. Keep on shining like the star you are.

Zack Lowe

There is nothing you can't conquer, Zack! Thank you for having such a positive approach in all that you do. Even when you find something tricky, you persevere to the end. That's a really important thing! Whether it be identifying types of fossil, or challenging yourself with reasoning/problem solving in Maths, you are always focused and eager to learn. Just brilliant!

Year 5

To all Year 5

Year 5-you all sang absolutely brilliantly yesterday at Young Voices. You truly got into the Young Voices spirit and you represented our school so, so well. Thank you for doing us proud!

Year 6

Freya, Martha, Fiona, Daniel G & Lauchlan

Please meet this week's year 6 telephonists - the faces behind the voices. We now have a group of year 6 volunteers who have had specialist training and are now manning the telephone on a lunchtime to give Mrs McLachlan a well earned lunch break. They have been clear, well mannered and professional. Well done - we are very proud of you all!

Golden Table

The children named below have been nominated by the Midday Supervisors for their outstanding behaviour at lunchtimes this week. Well done to all of you!
