Year 1

Harry Reeves

Harry it is such a pleasure to have you in year 1. Every day, every week you show us what a superstar you are, in everything you do. You are always first through the door in the morning with a big smile on your face, and you always give every activity 110%. This week you have worked really hard with your writing. You not only wrote some fantastic sentences, you carried on and added more detail until you had filled another page! Wow! Keep it up.

Amelia England

Who knew you were such a whizz at cricket? This week you have really impressed us with your determination and enthusiasm, as well as your positive attitude which shone through in our cricket session. We love seeing your cheery smile every day. Well done Amelia- keep aiming high!

William Thompson

William we know it hasn't been much fun having a broken arm, but you have soldiered on doing your absolute best every day, and we are so proud of you. You have still managed to do all your work to a high standard, and been involved in PE, even if you can't actually play. Well done for having such a positive attitude- you are amazing!

Year 2

Freddie Lee

Freddie you are a fabulous role model in Year 2. You come in every morning ready to learn and always settle down quickly to complete the morning task. In class, you put your hand up to answer questions and always try your very best. This week you worked really hard on the Chromebook researching facts about different sea creatures for our 'Under the Sea' topic. Well done! Keep up the fabulous work!

Jessica Sugden

You are also a great role model in Year 2. You are a super listener and always follow instructions carefully. Your focus and attitude to learning is truly amazing and you always take everything in your stride. You are always so polite and well mannered - it is a pleasure to have you in class. Well done, Jessica! What a wonderful example to set!

Your story writing has also been amazing and this is due to the excellent effort you are putting into the planning stages of your writing. Charlie Dawson

Thank you for being a fabulous role model to everyone - your learning behaviour is exemplary. You are always ready, listening and motivated to do your best. Year 5

Matthew Saunders

Matthew - we were absolutely blown away by your writing in our "Spooky Story" session. You used all the techniques that we had learned: describing the scene and the feelings of your characters in such detail that we could not help but be terrified! What on earth will happen next? We can't wait to find out! What a writing superstar you are, Matthew!

Jessica Turner

Jess - you are showing how super-duper organised you are! You always remember to have everything you need at the beginning of the day; you've been completing your reading at home everyday. You are the queen of organisation Jess - it's great to see!

Joe Alderson

Joe - what energy and enthusiasm you have been showing so far this term in your learning! You are asking (and answering) lots of questions in class, showing your inquisitive nature, which is lovely to see. Thank you for joining in all the time and keep that positivity up!
