Reception

Year 1

Eira Booth

Eira, we have been so impressed with your kind and caring nature this week. You are always a good friend to others, but this week you went above and beyond looking after people who were upset. We love how you take the time to care for everyone - you are a fantastic role model for the class - keep being you!

Theo Walls

Theo arrives at school every day with a big smile and bags of enthusiasm. He gives every activity 100% effort, and is always laughing and singing. We love having Theo in year one as he makes everyone's day better in so many different ways. What a superstar!

Mason Games

Wow Mason, what a great start to year one! You have had a super week; picked up all the routines really quickly and worked really hard practising your phonic sounds. We love how much you enjoy singing the counting songs, and how quickly you have learnt all the moves too. Well done Mason, keep aiming high.

Year 2

Mollie Turner

Mollie is such a smiley girl. She is happy and approachable all the time, and likes to be a good friend. Mollie chooses her attitude every day, and has lots of great days at school as a result! Mollie's superpower is being bubbly!

Chloe Fawcett

Chloe is a great member of our class. She always tries her best, and puts all of her effort into her work. Chloe's superpower is being independent! She will give everything a try, and we really like this positive approach to learning. Keep aiming high, Chloe!

Year 3

Olivia Gothard

Olivia, what a fantastic start to year three! You have worked incredibly hard across all subjects and you have made such a good impression! Your hard work is reflected in your amazing topic work, your creative story writing and in your maths application! We are so proud of you, Olivia! Keep up the great work ethic and positive attitude!

James Skipp

James, we are so impressed with your super focus, readiness to be straight on task and your enthusiasm for learning. Your perseverance in maths tasks has been excellent and you have shown such fabulous creativity in your story writing. We love that you have been inspired to write your own story at break times this week too! Keep aiming high, James - the sky really is the limit!

Max Ackroyd, Lucy Force, Evan Lowe, Brooke Mallinson, Laurence Maltman-Wragg, Seamus McGuill, Jessica Sugden, Gabriella Verney and Hugh Wilson

Thank you to you all for your amazing attitude throughout the multi-skills event you participated in this week. You had great fun and tackled all the activities with the brightest smiles! The wet weather didn't dampen your enthusiasm one bit and you all showed such incredible team spirit. You were simply fabulous and we are so very proud of you all!

Year 4

William Johnson

The school target for this week was 'choose your attitude'. William you do this every single day and what a fabulous attitude you have. You come in every morning prepared for the day ahead. You give everything 100% and take time, care and attention with every single piece of work or task. You are a super role model for others too and an absolute pleasure to have in class. Brilliant!

Taylor Finlay

Taylor you always come into class with a smile and bags of enthusiasm. You are a super friend to others with your kind, caring manner. You have impressed us this week with your determination to 'keep going' and are not afraid to ask for help when you need it. A super attitude to choose. Fantastic!

Olivia Davies

Olivia you are always incredibly focused in class and give everything you do 100% effort. Your kind and caring attitude shines through and it is lovely to see how you are always happy to help others. What a fabulous attitude to have. Keep up the great work, Olivia!

Year 5

Daniel Judge

You have impressed us all week, Dan! There has been so much positive praise for all that you are doing; we think you are simply a shining star. Whether it suggesting amazing sentences in our woodland descriptions, or really persevering in maths, you have been truly fantastic. Keep up the excellent work and attitude, Dan. We are so proud of you.

Taylor Games

Taylor, thank you for being determined to show us your best. You have had a superb week in class, showing perseverance with your work, kindness and helpfulness towards others, and a really grown up attitude. Not only this, your home learning was outstanding; showing that you are transferring your efforts to time outside school too. This is just brilliant!

Chloe Stonell

You are a joy to have in Year 5, Chloe. You have a fabulous ambition to succeed. We have noticed how engaged you are in your learning, always asking relevant questions and trying your very best. You are definitely 'present' in all lessons and have shown us exactly how to look up and aim high.

Year 6

Max Roberts - Max, you are an excellent role model for our class and indeed the whole school. You are eager to be your best and put your best effort into every task. You model our school values so well: you are kind, thoughtful, considerate, hardworking... and fun! Your attitude to learning is exceptional and you are a pleasure to have in the class. Keep up this fantastic focus, Max and you will fly!

Joe Whiteoak - Joe, you too know why you come to school and make sure you get the most out of every single day. You are always keen to take part in class discussions and are a supportive working partner to others. We can rely on you to put in 100% effort and 'get the job done'! We have been so impressed with your Macmillan letter this week. You made sure to include all the success criteria and also gave careful consideration to your vocabulary. Thanks for being such a great member of the Year 6 team, Joe.

We would also like to say a big thank you and well done to everyone in Year 6 for being such fantastic ambassadors for our school during our trip to Tropical World yesterday. We are so proud of you all for the way you listened and engaged in all the activities. You made sure you got the most out of the day and are ready to move your learning forward next week. Special thanks too to the parent helpers who made this trip possible.

Golden Table

The children named below have been nominated by the Midday Supervisors for their outstanding behaviour at lunchtimes this week. Well done to all of you!
