Every teacher needs a Lily! She is such a kind and thoughtful person, and will always help others with a game or their work. Lily has fantastic ideas for the classroom too, and is amazing at keeping everything organised. We simply could not manage without her.

Tilly Boulter

Tilly you are a delight! You have a brilliant sense of humour, and always seem to be laughing and smiling. You make everyone around you happy, and we really love how you give every activity 100% effort. Keep it up Tilly.

Diana Davy

What a fantastic half term you have had Diana. You have really impressed us with your super writing and your wonderful attitude to your learning. You always try your best and never give up. Keep aiming high!

Year 2

William Thompson

William works really hard in school. He gives everything a good try, and doesn't give up. I think he is going to do fabulous things this year! Keep looking up William. William's superpower is trying hard!

Eleanor Cockrem

Eleanor is an excellent learner. She has a great attitude and loves being in school - she literally skips in every morning! Eleanor's superpower is her attitude to her learning. She never gives up, and gives everything a try. Keep aiming high, Eleanor!

Year 3

Freddie Lee

Freddie, your enthusiasm for school life is infectious! You consistently give 100% effort throughout the curriculum and this is reflected in the quality of work you produce. Your keen interest in our current topic 'The Stone Age' is remarkable. This is demonstrated in your desire to extend your understanding even further at home where you produced an awe-inspiring Stone Age cave! A wonderful first half-term, Freddie. Keep smiling and being positive!

Jessica Sugden

Jessica, you have an amazing attitude to your learning right across the curriculum. You work with determination and you always strive to reach new challenges. This week, we have been really impressed with your ambitious vocabulary choices in story writing. Your attention to detail during purple polishing editing time has been fantastic! You also created beautiful illustrations of the sea creatures you planned to include in your ocean setting. You are such a kind, caring, helpful member of the class and you are a wonderful peer work partner. What a super star!

Year 4

Hamish Lambeth

Hamish you come into the classroom every morning with a smile. You always listen carefully and try your best. It doesn't matter who you are asked to work with, or sit next to, you can always be relied on to get on with the task and make sensible choices. Keep up the great work, Hamish!

Marissa Braithwaite

Marissa, you have grown in confidence so much since the start of the new school year and it's been lovely to see you flourish. You are always ready to learn, you listen carefully in class and you're willing to give challenges a go. This is just the right attitude to have! Well done!

Matthew Phillips

Matthew, you did some super persuasive writing this week and shared some fantastic ideas in class. You really persevered with this task and tried your very best to include as many of the success criteria as possible. A fantastic effort! Well done!

Bali Wadsworth

Bali, you are such a kind, caring and sensible young lady. This week you've shown how just a small amount of kindness and sensitivity can go such a long way. You've helped others around you when they've needed it and this has been just lovely to see. Keep being you!

Year 5

Phoebe O'Brien

You show our Christian values in abundance! Thank you for being someone we can always rely on to show and do your best. You brighten our day with your cheery smile, and even when you find things really tough, you just keep on going. This takes a lot of courage. You are kind and caring and lovely in every single way.

Grace Armstrong

You are a super member of our class, Grace. You always give your very best in everything we do. You have been noticed this week for being a great friend when someone needed you. What a considerate and thoughtful person you are. We just feel so lucky to have you in Year 5.

Year 6

James Faulkes and Izzy O'Connor

James and Izzy – you are super assets to our class. You model our school values every day and are good friends to those around you. In partner work, you discuss sensibly and take time to listen to others. It is clear that you are aiming high; always doing your best and not finishing a task until you are 100% sure it is top-quality.

James, your enthusiasm in maths this week has shone – the problem you set for the class yesterday was awesome. However, the support you offered to those of us who struggled was even more valuable. Your gentle, patient manner helped everyone understand the maths and achieve success in the task.

Izzy, you too are a patient, generous working partner. You are reliable and consistent in your approach to work and are a great role model. We can always depend on you to remain calm in a crisis and take everything in your stride. Awesome!!

Keep up this marvellous attitude, both – the sky's the limit!

Golden Table
