Reception

Year 1

Holly Southcott

Wow, Holly you have really impressed us in so many different ways this week. You are a good friend, and play some really interesting games. We really like how you always "Have fun", and include everyone in whatever you are doing. You also have a fantastic attitude to your learning, and work really hard, especially with your reading. Keep it up Holly- you are amazing.

Jessica Squires

What a great start to year 1 Jessica. You are always smiling, and making everyone else smile. We love how you never give up and will help others who are stuck. You are such a good friend - keep it up.

Henry Greveson

Henry, you are such a fantastic member of year 1. You brighten our day with your positive attitude, and we really like how you always try your best. Keep having fun, and keep being you!

Year 2

Georgia Anderson

Georgia is a positive person. She is a happy, smiley member of our class and brings some sunshine to school every day. She notices the best in other people. Georgia's superpower is being positive! Thank you for brightening up our days, Georgia!

Scarlet Smith

Our school target this week was to have fun - and that's just what Scarlet has done! She has joined in with everything we have done with a smile on her face. She has laughed, learned, and had a super week. Scarlet's superpower is having fun at any time!

Year 3

Laurence Maltman-Wragg

Laurence you have been absolutely amazing throughout our drama experience activities in English. Your ability to project the action and inner emotions of the character really impressed us. You work brilliantly with others and have shown great perseverance in learning challenges right across the curriculum. Fabulous - keep aiming high!

Poppy Wood

Poppy, you are a superstar! Since beginning year three, you have demonstrated so many of our school values. You are a polite, hard-working and thoughtful member of the class who works wonderfully with others. Your caring nature makes you such a valued member of our class and others enjoy to be around you. Continue smiling and radiating your kindness!

Year 4

Bryony Taylor

Bryony you come into class every morning with a huge smile and it never fails to brighten up our day. Your 'can do' attitude, focus and caring manner towards others is just wonderful to see. You set a great example to others in every single thing you do. What a super star!

William Milne

In RE this week you wrote a beautiful creation poem. The vocabulary you used showed that you had reflected carefully on the creation story, resulting in a really lovely piece of writing. Well done, William and keep up the great work.

Year 5

Ethan Maddock

Ethan, you always give your absolute best in everything you do. You really do set high goals for yourself and you certainly achieve them. We love how engaged you are in your learning and how fabulous you are but, even more endearing, is that you are completely modest too! You have impressed us with your river poem this week - totally outstanding! Great job!

Madeleine Westwick

For being an all-round superstar this week! We have noticed that you have stepped things up a gear, Maddie. You are being very proactive with your work and really showing that perseverance pays off. Your positive attitude, in everything you do, ensures you do well, and with a smile on your face too! Keep it up.

Year 6

Jess Turner and Ben Morley

Jess - you have settled into Year 6 life really well and are a super member of the team. This week, you have really blossomed and have shown a more confident approach to your learning. In our maths lessons, you have contributed well to group discussions, eager to explain your methods to the class. You persevere through tricky tasks and are now much happier asking for help when necessary. Keep this up, Jess and you will fly this year. Keep smiling!

Ben - you come to school with just the right attitude. You are determined to be your best and know how to achieve this. You are always focused and on task, get involved in class discussions and are a super learning partner. You are a bright, cheery member of our class, Ben. We love having you around and know you are going to have a great year. Well done!

Golden Table

The children named below have been nominated by the Midday Supervisors for their outstanding behaviour at lunchtimes this week. Well done to all of you!
