

Class Teacher and SEND Lead

A fantastic opportunity has arisen for a class teacher to join our amazing team to lead SEND and be part of the school's leadership team from September 2021.

We are proud to be a member of the STAR Multi-Academy Trust. This post would suit a dynamic teacher with a secure knowledge of the primary curriculum and experience of leading SEND.

Salary range: MPS/UPS with TLR 2a (not suitable for NQTs)

We are keen to receive applications from candidates who:

- have a track record of delivering good or outstanding outcomes for children
- demonstrate exceptional behaviour management skills
- lead and plan activities, delivering inspirational lessons based upon sound curriculum knowledge
- identify and address gaps in children's learning
- understand the impact of the learning environment upon children and staff and make changes efficiently and effectively
- monitor children's progress, make accurate observations, assess their achievement, record results and action findings
- have a 'can do' mentality with a desire to overcome any challenges that arise
- have experience of working with pupils with a range of additional needs including but not limited to: Autism, Attachment Disorder, ADHD, anger management issues
- have a current awareness of the SEND agenda, this is essential
- have evidence of consistently good practice that demonstrates impact, when providing quality SEN support

The strengths we can offer you are:

- delightful, respectful children
- a highly supportive team who share great ideas, celebrate successes and tackle challenges together
- a supportive governing body and leadership team
- a vibrant school community
- weekly release time to drive SEN support for pupils and staff
- a commitment to your professional development

If you are excited about this opportunity and think you have what it takes to 'shine' and be an integral part of our team, have any questions or queries or would like to discuss this opportunity further please contact our Headteacher, Mrs Melanie Lawrence, via email (as below).
